Loving the Lost
of the World through Prayer
Week #46 Upper Ta-Oy of Vietnam

The Upper Ta-Oy, also known as the Kantua, are a minority group in the mountain regions of central Vietnam. Most Ta-Oy are farmers. They are also skilled at hunting and taming elephants, making them wealthier than other people groups in the mountains. Ta-Oy villages usually have a few houses that are built on stilts. Several families live in each house. Most villagers love to sing, and music plays a big part of their daily lives. Many Ta-Oy have been affected by war and need healing. They seek help from spirits that cannot offer them the healing they need.

Let's pray Jeremiah 17:14 | Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved, for you are my praise.
